

Contents

Editors' Column .....	191
------------------------------	-----

Philip G. Kreyenbroek and Khanna Omarkhali Introduction .....	193
---	-----

Zoroastrianism

Philip G. Kreyenbroek Early Zoroastrianism and Orality .....	199
--	-----

Alberto Cantera On the Edge between Literacy and Orality: Manuscripts and Performance of the Zoroastrian Long Liturgy .....	211
---	-----

Sarah Stewart On the Problems of Studying Modern Zoroastrianism .....	251
---	-----

Yezidism

Eszter Spät Singing the Pain: Yezidi Oral Tradition and Sinjari Laments after ISIS .....	267
--	-----

Allison Stuewe The Village Chronotope in the Genre of Iraqi Yezidi Wedding Songs .....	293
--	-----

Estelle Amy de la Bretèque and Khanna Omarkhali The Yezidi Religious Music: A First Step in the Analysis of the Acoustic Shape of Qewls .....	309
---	-----

Ahl-e Haqq

Philip G. Kreyenbroek The Religious Textual Heritage of the Yārsān (Ahl-e Haqq) .....	331
---	-----

Partow Hooshmandrad Religious Musical Knowledge and Modes of Transmission among the Kurdish Ahl-e Haqq of Gurān .....	341
---	-----

Alevism

Erdal Gezik

“Let Me Tell You How It All Began”—
A Creation Story Told by Nesimi Kılagöz from Dersim ..... 363

Françoise Arnaud-Demir

Dancing the Text:
Embodying the Sacred Orature in the Alevi Semah (Turkey) ..... 389

Islamic Traditions

Shahrokh Raei

Men of Speech:
The ‘Ajam Dervishes and Their Role in the Transmission of Popular Persian Narratives ..... 407

Christian Neo-Aramaic Groups

Alexey Lyavdansky

Mîrza Mihemed / Mirza Pamat:
The Tales of the Fabled Hero in Kurdish and Neo-Aramaic Oral Sources ..... 419

Yulia Furman, Nikita Kuzin, and Gulsuma Demir

“Metran Îsa! Do Not Stir Up Trouble, Trouble Is Bad”:
A Kurdish Folk Song through a Christian Lens ..... 441

About the Authors ..... 463